Death of Tice, a "Believer," who was Hated by Other Spiritualists.

SOME CURIOUS THINGS RECALLED.

Coincidences in His Life and Death. How He Brought Out the Frauds in the James Seances-Some Sensational Experiences.

New York, June 9 .- An oblong wreath of white and red roses attached to a streamer of black crops suspended from the door knob, were the outward evidence of the death of William R. Tice, which attracted the attention of persons passing No. 338 Schermberhorn street, Brooklyn, yesterday.

The life of Mr. Tice was productive of many sensational experiences, and his death was marked by two features that have probably not been duplicated in the history of any other person in New York or Brocklyn

York or Brooklyn.

Mr. Tice was born in New York City on June 6, 1824; his death occurred last Saturday, June 8, 1891—on the sixty-seventh anniversary of his birth. Mr. Tice's second marriage was solemnized on June 6, 1891, so that the day of his death was also the tenth anniversary of his second marriage. It is certainly a rare thing for a person's birth, marriage and death to occur on the same day of the month.

The bereaved widow, in speaking of the death af her husband last night,

"Although Mr. Tice and I were not blessed with any children as the result of our marriage, each of us had children from former marriages. He was a widower and I a widow, and our respective stepchildren have become as dear to one another as if they were all of one father and mother. Mr. Tice's death occurred within one hour of the exact moment when we were married ten years ago, and at a moment exactly corresponding to the one at which he called at my home to conduct me to the church to have the marriage ceremony performed."

Mr. Tice was one of the best-known Spiritualists in the country. He was 'Although Mr. Tice and I were not Spiritualists in the country. He was sincere in his convictions on that point, and his zeal to expose all frauds and deceptions passing in the guise of spiritualism was so great as to bring him into disfavor with many other sincere "be-lievers," who denounced him as against the sect at heart, because they could not understand or appreciate the mo-tives that prompted his warfare on what he considered fraudulent manifesta-

Among the great body of Spiritualists, however, Mr. Tice was held in the highest respect and confidence, as was to be noted from the almost universal expression of sorrow at his death at the two Spiritualistic meetings held in Brooklyn last night—one at Conservatory Hall, Fulton and Bedford avenues, and the other in the parlors of Mrs. Dr. Blake, No. 284 Franklin avenue.

Mr. Tice was a member of the Pleasant Lake Association of Spiritualists ant Lake Association of Spiritualists and an officer in that body. He attended the meetings at Pleasant Lake in years gone by, and had hoped to do so this summer.

Mr. Tice's most sensational experience in exposing the frauds of alleged spirit mediums occurred at Everett Hall, Fulmediums occurred at Everett Hall, Fulton street, Brooklyn, about ten years ago. Alfred R. James, of Philadelphia, had announced at a seance at which he would give spirit manifestations, and, in order to convince the public that they were genuine, he requested that a committee of three well-known Spiritualists be appointed to examine his cabinet, his clothing and general surroundings, so that he could not use any devices to perpetrate fraud. Mr. Tice, the late Judge Goode and another gentleman whose name cannot now be readily recalled acted as the committee. recalled acted as the committee.

Just before they entered James' cabinet the alleged medium removed his coat unobserved by the committeemen.

James' clothing, his cabinet and its sur-James' clothing, his cabinet and its sur-roundings were searched closely, and everything pronounced all right. But just as Mr. Tice was leaving he observed that James was putting on his coat. He demanded at once to be permitted to examine the garment. This James refused. Tice seized the garment, and a struggle ensued in which both were burt, but the investigator secured the oat and James fled from the Hall. coat and James fled from the Hall. On Mr. Tiec tearing the coat apart he found that the lining had been put in so that it could be made a receptacle for airy, guazy material, cloths like Japanese silks, etc., which would occupy so little space that the coat-lining would hold large quantities.

Apparatus was attached to these materials by which, during a seance, James could pull them from the coat and make them float about the room in "spirit" fashion. Among the articles taken from the coat-lining was a small pair of slippers, on which were fastened glass beads, which during the seance would sparkle like diamonds.

James would inform his audience that the slippers were on the feet of the spirit of an oriental princess who had died years before. He brought this particular "spirit manifestation" out with great regularity in his soances.

After this exposure of James, the publisher of Mail and Matter, Jonathan M. Roberts, of Philadelphia, who was a strong friend and defender of James, assailed Mr. Tice so bitterly that Tice sued Roberts for malicious libel. He received a verdict of nominal damages and costs, and Roberts went to jail also, but the judgment was set aside on a

The late S. B. Nichols was a firm friend of Mr. Tice, and was present with his daughter at the James exposure. Miss Nichols, who now lives at No. 211 St. James place, Brooklyn, gave a graphic account of the affair yesterday.

Among the cases of other mediums exposed by Mr. Tice are recalled those of Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Bliss and Mrs. Williams, all of which have occurred in more iams, all of which have occurred in more recent years.

Mrs. Philip Cadwell, a medium, of Lexington avenue, near Nostrand, in Brooklyn, was exposed last fall by a party of investigators. Mr. Tice took much interest in this matter, and by Mrs. Cadwell's friends he was accused of having accomplished it, but really had no part whatever in the affair.

Mr. Tice was in the jewelry business in New York city for over twenty years, but retired twenty-one years ago. He

The Effect Was Magical.

I suffered from cancer on my lip that defled the skill of the best physicians of the State. I had it burned out, but the operation only made it worse, causing it to spread over more surface and eat deeper in. I finally used Swift's Specific (S. S. This was over four years ago, and since then there has been no sign of a return of the enters. I will cheerfully answer any inquiries in regard to my case.
